

Literary Selection Policy
for
The Alva Independent School District #001

The Board of Education, the governing body of the school district, is legally responsible for the selection of instructional materials. This authority is delegated to the faculty and administration.

The primary objective in the selection of instructional materials is to promote the intellectual, cultural, social and ethical development of students; provide materials which extend and deepen the experience encompassed in the curriculum; and encourage students to become productive citizens in an ever-changing democracy. These principles are fulfilled through the selection, provision and utilization of expertly selected books and other media of learning which contributes to the growth of the individual student.
